

Region south Africa contributes the highest sales, accounting for 40% of total transactions.

Product electronics is the top-selling product, generating 15% of total revenue.

Transactions peak in December, with the highest total value recorded during this month.

Customers purchasing from Category Y have the highest average transaction value.

Repeat customers account for 60% of the total revenue, showcasing strong customer retention.